

Cisco Networking Presentation

Choose one of the chapters in Discovery 1 or Discovery 2.

Poor	Good	Advanced	Distinguished
Use no Content Outlines as the guidelines. (Can be found at the beginning of Introduction of each chapter.)	Use 1/3 Content Outlines as the guidelines. (Can be found at the beginning of Introduction of each chapter.)	Use 2/3 Content Outlines as the guidelines. (Can be found at the beginning of Introduction of each chapter.)	Use the Content Outlines as the guidelines. (Can be found at the beginning of Introduction of each chapter.)
Many spelling or grammatical errors.	Five spelling or grammatical errors.	Two spelling or grammatical errors.	No spelling or grammatical errors.
Use 4 slides. 2 questions for audience; answer 1 questions from audience.	Use 6 slides. 2 questions for audience; answer 2 questions from audience.	Use 8 slides. 3 questions for audience; answer 2 questions from audience.	10 slides; 3 questions for audience; answer 3 questions from audience.
Use no images or figures to support the presentation.	Occasionally use images and figures to rarely support the presentation.	Use some images and figures to relate to the presentation.	Use images and figures to help explain and reinforce the content.
No sequence of information, making it hard for audiences to understand presentation.	Jump around the content, making it hard for audiences to follow presentation.	Present information in logical sequence which audience can follow.	Present information in logical and interesting sequence, making it easy to follow.
Have no grasp of information; can't answer questions about the subject.	Uncomfortable with information and is able to cover part of the content, but fails to answer the questions.	Demonstrate enough knowledge and answer most questions with explanations and some elaboration.	Demonstrate full knowledge by covering the main content of the chapter with explanations and elaboration and answer all the questions.
Make no eye contact and only reads from	Occasionally use eye contact, but still reads	Maintain eye contact most of the time but	Maintain eye contact with audience, notes.	mostly from notes.	frequently returns to notes.	seldom returning to notes.

Mumble, incorrectly pronounce terms, and speak too quietly for audience to hear.	Voice is low. Incorrectly pronounce terms. Audience have difficulty hearing presentation.	Voice is clear. Pronounce most words correctly. Most audience can hear presentation.	Use a clear voice and correct, precise pronunciation of terms so that all audience can hear presentation.